ID is possibly passable corners are very very suspicious looks as if they were cut with scissors (makes slightly squarish corners). All in all would recommend as the price isnt to bad and it is excellent for what you pay.

Very communicative. Second order I've had with them/him/her. ID's are pretty well made and IMO would pass for most necessary things. Stopping short of somewhere that may scrutinize them heavily under policy (maybe high end stores, banks, birth deaths and marriages ect?). Post Offices and the like they have all worked flawlessly.
