SweFarmaci, what happened!!!

I help you out and repay me by exploiting a bug in my system? That's not cool man, you should have told me about it. I want to give you a chance to do the right thing and put the money back. If you don't, I'll get your mailing address from one of the two vendors who your ordered from from your laksam account and hunt you down, understand? Don't think I don't have people in Sweden.

Doesn't matter, I know you'll do the right thing, right?
