

Who is Silk Road? Some call me SR, SR admin or just Silk Road. But isn't that confusing? I am Silk Road, the market, the person, the enterprise, everything. But Silk Road has matured and I need an identity separate from the site and the enterprise of which I am now only a part. I need a name. Actually, I already have a name picked out. It is a great name. You are going to love it. It is perfect on so many levels. But, I'm not going to reveal it until this weekend, when our customer appreciation sale is in full swing.

And, in the spirit of customer appreciation and love, we're going to play a little game. Some time between noon Saturday and noon Sunday UTC I will announce my new name in this thread. The last person to post the top three items on their Silk Road wish list before I post my name will get those items express shipped to their front door for free!

Fun game, right? But, like any good game, there are rules:

- 1) no posting more than once every half hour
- 2) the items must be under $500 in total value
- 3) you can't post the exact same wish-list twice

See you this weekend 😎

drum roll please.....
and my new name is:

Dread Pirate Roberts

I'll give it a couple of days to sink in before actually changing it on the sites, but there you have it 🙄 Can't wait to see who the winner is after I post this!

make footer solid dark grey, no gradient switch the hover and main colors for the blue links (should darker normally, lighter when hovering)

same goes for the blue "go" button in the tool bar

make blue counters in toolbar the same new darker blue color as the links. same goes for the item links in the recent feedback increase font size of counters (categories and toolbar). min font size site-wide is 10 pt, maybe make the ITEM link lower case if it looks too big at the bigger font make hover color for purchase buttons a paler green of the main green color instead of blue search field should expand dynamically with page width so it takes up any extra space in the toolbar and shrinks down in small windows (is this possible with only css? width: 100% or something?)

area behind cart, messages, etc should get lighter on hover like the Silk Road title on the left make toolbar and footer text bigger, but keep the container sizes the same

That should do it. I'll try to get my feedback to you more quickly next time so we can get a rhythm going and then move on to the other views.

PS
Hello all,
Sweetbutb0888 is providing SR with feedback - please do not mail us regarding feedbacks - mail SR for your feedbacks. - We are on vacation until this slows over -
Please, do not mail Sweetbutb0888 in regard to any feedbacks - YOU WILL NOT GET ANY REPLY.
Best regards
ABD

ummm... no. Do not message SR Support with product requests. Vendors must fill their own orders.

PS
So if I order now I get the discount? or I have to order on the weekend to get the discount? and do all the listings appear with the discounts or normal price and then discount is applied?
thanks 🍀

the sale goes into effect this weekend. when it does, you'll see prices across the board drop. Each vendor is in charge of their own sale and should be providing details on their user page before the weekend.

UPDATE: Thank you everyone for making the sale a HUGE success! I want to give a warm and special thank you to all of the vendors who pulled together at the last minute to offer up their sales. My apologies to those that ran sales but didn't make it on the list, hopefully the word got out anyway. Next time we'll give more notice for vendors to get deals together, and customers to get income. We love you all! (Don't you love the site?)

make the top bar have a min-width equal to the width of the page when the pics are in a 3x3 configuration, or whatever min-width you think is appropriate to accommodate many screen resolutions (1024px?) at this min width, the search bar should be sized to take up the extra space in the topbar use the new shade of grey for subcategories that is in your latest upload. darken the alt-row grey and hover grey for tables so it is more noticeable. leave all other colors as they are in my upload. change .btn padding to 3px 7px 3px

I'll message you about compensation since this one is dragging on. What does everyone else think of the design so far?

the images are the only thing messing that up. It would be nice if when the screen was smaller, it went from 4x3 to 3x4. right now it treats each row separately, so you get 3 then 1 then 3, etc. if they were all in the same container and just had a float: left, wouldn't that achieve the desired effect?

Rules Question - What about a vendor like Rook who uses a per unit system for his products. Can I put in 23 units of Rook's product as 1 wishlist item?
